The diagram shows a large horizontal oval labeled "TOTAL NATURAL OBJECT". Inside this large oval are two smaller, horizontally-oriented ovals filled with diagonal hatching. The left hatched oval is labeled "CLOTH OR CLOTHES" with a solid line. The right hatched oval is labeled "HUMAN BODY SKIN" with a solid line. A dashed arrow originates from the bottom-left corner of the diagram, where a vertical and horizontal axis meet, and points towards the "CLOTH OR CLOTHES" oval.
